HONORABLE CARAL E.
SPANGLER

Assistant Secretary of the Army for Financial Management and
Comptroller (ASA (FM&C))
Washington, DC

ARMY FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT &
COMPTROLLER

The Honorable Spangler was sworn in on August 17, 2021 and currently serves as the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Financial Management and Comptroller) (ASA(FM&C)) and is the principal advisor to the Secretary of the Army on all matters related to Financial Management and Comptrollership. In this role, she is responsible for resourcing America's Army through policies and activities, including budget formulation and execution, disbursement, and audit compliant financial statements.

Ms. Spangler has over 39-years of government service, serving as a career member of the Senior Executive Service in every military service and the Pentagon comptroller's office. Prior to her current role, she served with the US Marine Corps (USMC) as the Assistant Deputy Commandant for Program and Resources, responsible for advising the Commandant, Assistant Commandant, and Deputy Commandant for Programs and Resources on budget, financial operations and financial audit issues Division, Fiscal Division, and the Technology Services Organization impacting the Marine Corps with oversight of Marine Corps' Budget and Execution.

Ms. Spangler served as the Principal Deputy ASA(FM&C), Office of the ASA(FM&C), Pentagon, Washington, D.C., where she advised the Assistant Secretary and the Army leadership on matters relating to Army finance, accounting, financial systems, financial management workforce development, and cost and economic activities. Prior to serving with the Army, Ms. Spangler was the Deputy for Budget, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Financial Management and Comptroller), responsible for planning and directing Air Force budget formulation and execution of appropriations totaling more than $160 billion annually. She led a staff of civilian and military financial managers to develop, defend and execute funding to support military operations and Air Force priorities at the direction of Congress, the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of the Air Force.

Ms. Spangler was the Assistant Deputy Commandant for Resources (USMC), also known as the Fiscal Director. As such, she was responsible for the formulation and execution of the Marine Corps' $31B budget, and had responsibility for financial systems, accounting, and financial improvement. She was the community leader for the USMC financial management community and held positions of increasing responsibility within the Navy and the Office of the Undersecretary of Defense (Comptroller) in the areas of budget formulation, program integration and resource management. She has experience with every appropriation category.

BRIGADIER GENERAL
CHRISTINE A. BEELER

Commanding General, U.S. Army
Contracting Command

Brigadier General Christine A. Beeler is the commanding general of the U.S. Army Contracting Command (ACC) headquartered at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama. ACC, a subordinate command to the Army Materiel Command, is comprised of a subordinate one-star command, six major contracting centers and eight contracting support brigades. ACC enables Army readiness through global, expeditionary contracting support to warfighters engaged in military operations, weapon systems acquisition, life cycle management, sustainment and acquisition of goods and services vital to the Soldier's mission and well-being. Its workforce includes more than 6,000 military and civilian personnel at more than 100 locations worldwide.

Prior to assuming command of ACC, Brigadier General Beeler served as the Commanding General for the U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command at Joint Base San Antonio-Sam Houston, Texas. Brigadier General Beeler was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Ordnance Corps through the Army ROTC program at Boston University in 1991, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration as a distinguished military graduate. She joined the Army Acquisition Corps in 1998, and she is certified in Contract Program Management and Logistics.

Her advanced education includes a Master of Arts in Administration and Management from Bowie State University, Prince George's County, Maryland; a Master of Public Administration in Environmental Management from Jacksonville State University, Jacksonville, Alabama; and a Master of Business Administration from Webster University. Brigadier General Beeler's military education includes a Master of Science in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. She is a graduate of the Command and General Staff College.

Brigadier General Beeler has held numerous command and staff positions. Her key assignments include Logistics Officer, 501st Corps Support Group, Uijongbu, South Korea; Commander, 595th Maintenance Company, Songnam, South Korea; Contracting Officer, Doha, Qatar; Assistant Product Manager, Patriot Missile and Medium Extended Air Defense Systems, Huntsville, Alabama; Professor of Program Management and Course Director, Army Acquisition Basic Course, Huntsville, Alabama; Commander, Army Contracting Command-Kuwait, Camp Arifjan, Kuwait; Contracting Operations Staff Officer, Expeditionary Contracting Command, Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama; Executive Officer to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Procurement, Army Staff, Pentagon; Commander, 414th Contracting Support Brigade; and Deputy Director of Contracting, United States Army Corps of Engineers, Deputy Commanding General, OCONUS Operations, United States Army Contracting Command.

She is airborne qualified and authorized to wear the Army Staff Badge.

THOMAS CONSTABLE
Syracuse University
Director, Defense Programs

Thomas Constable serves as the Director of Defense Programs at the Martin J. Whitman School of Management, Syracuse University. There, he administers the Defense Comptrollership Program (DCP) and other courses designed to enhance learning and professional development of financial managers across the Department of Defense (DoD).

In 2023, Mr. Constable departed the DoD, where he served as the Acting Assistant Secretary of Defense (ASD) for Manpower and Reserve Affairs, and as the Acting ASD for Readiness. He was responsible for all policy matters related to DoD civilian and military personnel, Reserve Forces integration, and for quality-of-life policies and programs for military communities and family programs, including military exchanges; morale, welfare, and recreation (MWR); family advocacy and spouse employment; the chaplaincy; DoD childcare, and youth services. He oversaw and supervised the Department of Defense Education Activity and the Defense Commissary Agency.

Mr. Constable graduated from the Defense Comptrollership Program in 2004 and was assigned to the Army Staff as a program and budget analyst, managing Army and National Intelligence Program resources. He then moved to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (Comptroller), formulating budgets for defense-wide agencies and counter-drug activities. He briefly left the Pentagon to serve overseas as the senior resource manager (G8) for U.S. Army Africa in Vicenza, Italy. In 2015, he returned to the Pentagon as the Associate Director (SES) for Military Operations, leading the team that manages Operation and Maintenance appropriations, Civilian Pay, and Working Capital Funds for the Military Services.

Mr. Constable is a Soldier for life, having enlisted in the Army in 1987, and retired from active duty in 2008. He received master's degrees in business administration and public administration from Syracuse University, and a graduate Certificate in Conflict Resolution from The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs. His awards include the Legion of Merit, and the Secretary of Defense Medal for Meritorious Civilian Service; he is a proud recipient of the Leonard F. Keenan Award for Distinguished Service.
